Optimally protected against accidents and occupational illness

Accidents and occupational illnesses can have serious consequences for the lives and careers of employees. The compulsory accident insurance (UVG) and voluntary UVG supplementary accident insurance cushion the financial consequences and protect employees from economic deprivation. Our offer is rounded off perfectly by Case Management and assistance services.

Compulsory accident insurance (UVG)

Under the Federal Accident Insurance Act (UVG), companies are obliged to insure their employees against the consequences of accidents and occupational illnesses. Helsana is a private insurer offering statutory accident insurance to companies that are not obliged by law to take out insurance coverage from Suva.

Please note:

- The UVG loss of earnings insurance must cover at least 80% of the salary from the third day after the accident.
- The maximum salary that can be insured per person and year is CHF 148,200.
- For employees who work less than eight hours per week, insurance benefits are limited to occupational accidents and occupational illnesses, including accidents on the way to and from work.
- Self-employed individuals can take out voluntary accident insurance pursuant to the UVG.

UVG supplementary accident insurance

In addition to the compulsory UVG insurance, Helsana also offers companies UVG supplementary accident insurance that covers additional benefits.

For example:

- Assumption of up to 100 per cent of loss of earnings
- Coverage for two waiting days
- Coverage of salaries that exceed the UVG maximum of CHF 148,200
- Hospital stay in semi-private or private ward as well as additional coverage abroad

- Medical expenses abroad
- Assistance service for accidents abroad
- Assumption of complementary medical treatments
- Medicines not covered by basic insurance provided off-list
- Inclusion of extraordinary risk if benefits are reduced or refused due to gross negligence or act of daring
- Lump-sum disability and death benefits as well as disability and survivor's pensions for excess salaries
- Lump-sum death benefit with free choice of beneficiary
- Continued payment of salary in the event of death
- Disability and survivor's pensions for surplus salaries
- Partner's pension as part of the UVG salary and/or surplus salary
- Household help
