Products for immigrants

Some just move here temporarily, while others have found a new home in Switzerland.

No matter the circumstances, we are by your side to ensure you feel right at home from the very start. We offer insurance solutions tailored to your specific needs – from a choice of compulsory health insurance models to the voluntary supplementary insurance options for specific medical concerns.

compulsory

Basic insurance

Covers essential medical needs

-  5 models available
-  Choice of annual deductible
-  Deductible amount depends on the place of residence

Are you in need of medication, a doctor or a hospital? Then you must cover some of these costs yourself (deductible). You can choose the amount of your deductible every year. Once the deductible has been exceeded over the course of a calendar year, we assume 90% of all further costs. The rule is: the higher your deductible, the lower your yearly contribution, also known as the insurance premium.

Important: You must take out basic insurance within 3 months of arriving in the country.

Supplementary insurance

voluntary

Covers additional needs related to your health

-  Types of supplementary insurance

Supplementary outpatient insurance:

for benefits such as alternative medicine, glasses, contact lenses, dental treatment, etc.

Supplementary hospital insurance:

for free choice of hospital anywhere in Switzerland, additional comfort in hospital room, allowances towards convalescent treatments, household help, etc.

-  Health declaration required
-  Monthly premium depends on age and place of residence

Legal expenses insurance:

for legal advice and representation in the event of legal problems, e.g. relating to civil, motoring or internet matters
